

The Problem of Contingency in the East

Date: 23-24 June 2016

Venue: Toegye Hall of Humanities 31512

퇴계인문관 31512

Day 1: 23 June 2016 (Thursday)

9:00-9:15	Welcoming Remarks	Shin Jeong Geun Philip J Ivanhoe	Sungkyunkwan University City University of Hong Kong
9:15-10:15	The Conceptions of Time in the Western and Eastern Zhou Periods	Tae Hyun Kim	University of California, Berkeley
11:00-12:20	Great Fate and Little Fates: Negotiating Contingency from Discovered Warring States Texts to Wang Chong	Mark Csikszentmihalyi	University of California, Berkeley
2:30-3:50	Two Virtuous Actions Cannot Both be Completed	Michael Kaulana Ing	Indiana University, Bloomington
4:10-5:30	The Place of Vulnerability in an Ethics of Contingency ( ming 命)	Sarah A. Mattice	University of North Florida

Day 2: 24 June 2016 (Friday)

9:00-10:20	Moral Economy and Contingency	Youngsun Back	Sungkyunkwan University
10:40-12:00	Contingency and Political Responsibility in Early Confucianism	Sungmoon Kim	City University of Hong Kong
2:00- 3:20	Free Will and Fate in Dasan Jeong Yak Yong's Interpretation of the Changes	Bang In	Kyungpook National University
3:40-5:00	Destiny beyond Good or Evil: Contingency and Great Transformation in Donghak	So Jeong Park	Nanyang Technological University
5:00-5:30	Open Discussion

Funded by:

한국학중앙연구원 한국학진흥사업단
THE ACADEMY OF KOREAN STUDIES Korean Studies Promotion Service